EMPLOYMENT

BROOKLYN LAW SCHOOL
PROFESSOR OF CLINICAL LAW

(8/07 – present)

FOUNDER/DIRECTOR, BROOKLYN LAW INCUBATOR & POLICY CLINIC

Founding director of the pioneering Brooklyn Law Incubator & Policy \(BLIP\) Clinic, which functions as a full-service law firm for socially-virtuous, bootstrapped, tech-oriented startup ventures. BLIP has represented more than 1500 ventures often pursuing novel issues that the law has not anticipated in all phases of law and policy, with a strong focus on regulatory law and compliance. Each semester upwards of 30 law students are selected from more than 100 applicants to explore issues at the intersection of law and technology.

Teach classes in tech law and policy, telecommunications, startups, entrepreneurship and related issues.

FACULTY CHAIR AND INNOVATION CATALYST,
CENTER FOR URBAN BUSINESS ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Founder, Faculty Chair, and Innovation Catalyst to the Center for Urban Business Entrepreneurship, which serves as a hub for law, technology, and entrepreneurship. Founded and oversee the CUBE Innovators' Invitational, designed to challenge law students in the greater NY area, to build legal technology ventures. Run the CUBE Consultation Centers, which, in collaboration with multiple NY law firms, provides pro bono legal consultations for NY-based tech-oriented startups and entrepreneurs. Use Brooklyn Law School as the hub for multiple Meet-Up groups working at the intersection of law and technology.

FOUNDER/DIRECTOR, BROOKLYN JUSTICE LAB (PREVIOUSLY BROOKLYN SMART LAB)

Founder, Brooklyn Law Justice Lab, which uses code and no-code tools to build access to justice tools and apps. Building a global repository of access to justice toolsets and apps and a fix-it shop to update and translate existing A2J apps across time and jurisdictions.

Founded and lead multiple strategic partnerships with law schools, technology schools, incubators, think tanks, trade associations, public interest groups, and various consortia, both domestic and international, to explore tech law and legal tech issues.

FACULTY LEAD, FINTECH LAW AND POLICY MASTERS IN LEGAL STUDIES

Leading Brooklyn Law School's launch of a Masters in Legal Studies Program in Fintech Law and Policy.

iLINC NETWORK OF EUROPEAN LAW SCHOOL STARTUP CLINICS

(9/13 – present)

FOUNDER/ADVISOR/CORE-PARTNER

Received $650k grant from the European Commission to build network of law clinics with consortium of European law schools to represent the European startups. Core partners include University of London, University of Amsterdam, University of Leuven, and University of Hamburg, and 12 affiliated law schools. Advised each of the 28 European law schools on how to build out programs to allow law students and lawyers to work with technologists and tech ventures and to harness technology tools and process to advance the legal profession and legal processes.

LEGAL HACKERS

(1/12 – present)

“GODFATHER”

Ran first Legal Hackathon in 2012 and founded Legal Hackers, which has grown into the largest community of tech-oriented lawyers in the world, with tens of thousands of members across 180+ chapters on five continents. The Legal Hackers global community runs scores of legal hackathons and prototyping sessions, with an eye towards teaching 21st Century attorneys and policy advocates to think and function like the agile, creative ventures creating the systems and structures for the Digital Age. Through Legal Hackers, I have led hundreds of technologists and lawyers around the world to figure out how to deploy technology tools to advance the law and legal process.
